My RESIDENCE Case Study

R9

This stunning country manor is set tucked away in an idyllic rural setting in the beautiful British countryside.

To keep the charming character of their grand home, the homeowners opted for Residence 9 in Clotted Cream timber effect foil finish for both internal and external. It gives the perfect subtle pop of yellow that gleams in the sunshine.

The colour choice and Georgian bar detailing perfectly complements the white traditional exterior to their home. The internal details of R9 blends flawlessly into the heritage feel of the inside décor, keeping the character.
